TAK FOR ALT Survival of a Human Spirit

A remarkable documentary & curriculum which bring together a survivor's story and the modern meaning of tolerance.

WINNER

- Anti-Defamation League Dore Scharly Award
- National Educational Media Network Gold Apple
- Judah Magnes Museum Jewish Video Award

"You probably haven't met Judy Meisel. But once you do in TAK FOR ALT (Thanks for Everything in Danish) an extraordinary documentary about an extraordinary life, she will be your heroine. Listening to Meisel, it is as though Anne Frank had miraculously lived. Meisel's eloquence is every bit as moving as Frank's diaries."

-- Carrie Rickey, The Philadelphia Inquirer

"It fully captures the remarkable courage of a young girl and the vision of a woman who is relentlessly committed to teaching tolerance and combating racism..."

-- U.S. Congresswoman Lois Capps

"In Tak for Alt, Judith Meisel...[narrates] her terrible experiences with terrific detail, recalling those who helped (particularly the Danish people) her and her sister, and in so doing [shows] us both sides of human nature in vivid detail....This is highly recommended."

-- Video Librarian Magazine, Editor's Choice ★★★★★

NEW CURRICULUM GUIDE FOR TEACHERS

This new standards based curriculum, designed to integrate Holocaust education with studies in tolerance and ethics, includes segments on the Holocaust, Denmark's Rescue of its Jewish population during WW II, the United States Civil Rights Movement, and personal ethics.
